ANNOUNCEMENTS

MLS Coordinator, The Graduate School

The Graduate School is seeking a Coordinator for the Master of Liberal Studies (MLS) Degree of the Graduate School. The MLS Coordinator assists the Dean of the Graduate School with the university's interdisciplinary master's degree programs and other unit services. The Coordinator leads the MLS program which enrolls approximately 300 students per semester. One unit of reassigned time is available to current full-time faculty for this position beginning with the Spring, 2017 semester.

The MLS Coordinator will be expected to:

- 1) supervise the MLS core comprehensive exam process
- 2) lead assessment efforts in the MLS program,
- 3) represent the Graduate School on the Graduate Council and other university committees as assigned
- 4) demonstrate commitment to graduate education and interdisciplinary programming
- 5) serve as an effective student advisor for MLS students, and
- 6) understand the responsibilities of an academic support unit.

Please submit a letter of interest and a current curriculum vita via email to Breanna Kroeger, Administrative Specialist at the Graduate School, at bakroeger2@fhsu.edu. The review process will begin upon receipt of materials with preference given to complete applications submitted prior to January 13, 2017. Inquiries may be made to Chapman Rackaway, Interim Dean of the Graduate School, at cbrackaway@fhsu.edu.
